

BOSTON WORKERS' ALLIANCE

The Right to Work
A Poor People's Movement

Boston Workers' Alliance (BWA) is an organization of under- and unemployed adults, united to end CORI discrimination and the crisis of joblessness.

As we commemorate the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr.'s life and legacy, we are especially inspired by his "second phase" in a struggle for justice. At his untimely death, King aspired to build a powerful interracial "Poor People's Campaign" to win jobs and economic rights for all.

Dr. King Spoke of a DREAM

We speak of JOBS

We are the new poor people's movement

We are the face of labor

We are the skilled workers of this nation

We are the under- and unemployed

We are sick and tired of being sick and tired

We are fighting for fair jobs for all!

Are you ready to recognize us?

FUND THE DREAM, NOW!

"We call our demonstration a campaign for jobs and income because we feel that the economic question is the most crucial that black people, and poor people generally, are confronting" (Dr. King, '68)

The BWA is committed to walking the path that Dr. King already illuminated. We share his unfinished vision for a society that guarantees full and fair employment, and prioritizes basic human needs over war, prisons or corporate profit. The Boston Workers' Alliance aims to:

- 1) Reform CORI now!
- 2) Create new jobs and worker-owned cooperative businesses
- 3) Demand a full-employment economy
